Work Description (Include information about your premiere concerts):

The 5-movement piece is orchestrated very densely to give the impression that our ensemble is larger than the 4 instruments. The music is very exciting and symbolizes a journey towards something that ultimately ended up being an illusion. Dual meter and tempo markings and micro-tonal harmonies are utilized in various parts of the piece. The premiere took place in Miller Theater, New York--a very well attended and successful concert. We have performed the music in three great concerts in Norway, and most recently at DROM in New York.
